Lecture on the Hawaiian Islands

New York, April 11—[Special]—General S C Armstrong read a paper last evening before the Long Island historical society in Brooklyn on the Hawaiian Islands before a very large audience. He said the darkest shadow on the islands at the present time was the influx of Chinese. Their vast immorality had caused an inequality in the sexes, the men greatly outnumbering the women, which is always fatal to morality. The reciprocity treaty with our country stimulated business and made money plenty. If abrogated it would ruin many of the planters on the islands and would cause the government of the islands to form an alliance with some European nation. "We may not know our need of these islands until it is too late to obtain them."

A Suit about Obscene Literature.

Boston, April 11—[Special.]—Anthony Comstock had a bad setback in the suit against E. H. Heywood in the United States court, brought to trial to convict that irrate free lover under the state law against obscenity for circulating the somewhat widely known "Cupid's Yoke" and Leaflets from Walt Whitman's Leaves of Grass. Comstock alleged that there were such immoral things in these publications that they could not in decency be entered on the record of the court. Good deal latitude was allowed Heywood for reading eulogies on Walt Whitman by R. Waldo Emerson and others. The judge said he would not rule as to the character of the extracts from the "good gray poet," but said there was nothing in them improper to go on the record of the court and dismissed the charges for that reason.

Generous Jay Gould.

New York, April 11.—[Special.]—The decision of the lower court as to dividing $5,000,000 of Western Union stock being calculated to embarrass present holders, Jay Gould assumes the responsibility of paying the dividend on all of the stock out of his own funds, amounting to over $1,400,000. The following is his announcement: In view of serious and vexatious suits against the Western Union telegraph company I have arranged with the Mercantile Trust company to advance to all stockholders of Western Union telegraph company on and after April 10, 1883, the amount of their dividends payable April 16, on assignment to me at the offices of the Trust company of their right to receive the same. The portion of January dividend still unpaid will be arranged for in the same manner.

Butler's Unpopularity in the Legislature.

Boston, April 11—[Special.]—Democrats and republicans in the state legislature join in fighting Governor Butler. While he was out of the state his secretary sent in a veto message. The unconstitutionality of such an act was referred to a committee which reported to-day. The majority favor an impeachment trial to decide how the governor exercises his official functions, while the minority favor asking the opinion of the supreme court. The finance committee, composed of democrats and republicans, unanimously reports in favor of passing the almshouse bill over the governor's veto.

Hindoostan vs. American Wheat.

New York, April 11—[Special.]—Sun: American wheat growers scarcely expect rivalry from farmers in Hindoostan, but the latter now present a new factor in the food production of the world which may operate to keep down the price of American wheat for some time. The Indian railroad company have been blind to the wisdom of reducing the cost of transportation to the lowest paying rate to attract business, but now such concessions have been made as to open Hindoostan to the English market by way of the Suez canal.

Will Construct a Race Track.

New York, April 11—[Special.]—Yesterday Colonel Bruce, in conversation with a reporter, said a project was under consideration to purchase the Prospect park fair grounds and convert them into a first-class race track. A company would be organized as soon as the deeds of the property, which have been forwarded to San Francisco for signature, have been returned to this city. It is intended that the race track shall be governed by the rules of the American Jockey club.

Henry Ward Beecher.

New York, April 11—[Special.]—The New York and Brooklyn Congregational association yesterday adopted a resolution that the association feels its loss in the withdrawal of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher and its members hope that he will reconsider his determination and return to the body. Beecher's wife said to a reporter that her husband has gone to Pennsylvania on a lecturing tour. She did not know whether he would accept the invitation of the conference or not. It would certainly be a surprise to him.

The South's Boom.

New York, April 11.—[Special.—Commercial: The manufacturing boom is rapidly settling southward, particularly in the direction of Atlanta. A member of one of the largest shoe firms in Boston has been making arrangements to move his tannery and shoe factory to Atlanta, and the establishment of an oleomargarine factory in that city promises to give an immense impetus to business. There is a general desire among Boston workmen to go south where the climate is better and living cheaper.

Conkling's Organ in a Reverse.

New York, April 11.—[Special.]—Washington special to the Commercial Advertiser: The Conkling organ denies the story of Conkling's having made a disparaging comparison regarding Arthur's administration, and said he had no falling out with the president. He had been invited frequently to visit the white house, which he courteously declined, on the ground that his presence would be misconstrued.

Against Saint Morse.

New York, April 11.—[Special.]—In the Salmi Morse case to-day, after hearing the arguments on both sides at some length, the judge decided that the performance was within the meaning of the statute, and was a dramatic representation. Whether it was sacred or not had nothing to do with the matter. He would, therefore, continue the injunction restraining the production of the play.

Two Pennsylvania Bills.

Harrisburg, April 11.—In the senate a bill was introduced to prohibit the manufacture and sale of infernal machines and devices to destroy life and injure property. A bill was also introduced preventing any attempt to personate or represent any being recognized as a divinity in the new or old Testament, in any show or theatrical performance.

Vanderbilt Unloading.

New York, April 11.—[Special.]—Wall street papers: W. H. Vanderbilt's check for April interest on government fours was $402,000, or the interest of $40,200,000 of bonds. He has received $378,000 for quarterly interest. This shows that he has sold or otherwise disposed $7,800,000 of his bonds.

Libel Suit against the "Tribune."

New York, April 11.—Joseph M. Stoddard, publisher of this city and Philadelphia, has begun action for libel against the Tribune association, laying damages at $100,000. The alleged libel is that the Tribune charged Stoddard with pirating an edition of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Death of Red Cloud's Son

Chicago, April 11.—A young Indian aged 15 years died on the west bound Fort Wayne train, near Valparaiso this afternoon. He was a son of the celebrated Indian chief Red Cloud, and was on his way to join his tribe from Carlisle, Pa., where he had been at school.

For Judge Gresham's Place

Logansport, Ind., April 11.—[Special.]—Hon. D. H. Chase of this judicial circuit and Judge Kibbey of Richmond, Ind., are the leading candidates to succeed Judge Gresham on the United States bench. Chase has a fine record as judge and has especially strong backing.

Securing Music

Louisville, April 11.—Members of the Louisville cotton exposition have closed a contract with the seventh regiment band for the first 40 days of the exposition. Gilmore's band will play the remaining 60 days. This involves an expenditure of $46,000.

CALIFORNIA

Contesting for a Princely Fortune

San Francisco, April 11.—A spirited contest is now going on here in the probate court over the estate of the capitalist Thomas H. Blythe, who died here early in the city, over [illegible] its value at $4,000,000. Alice [illegible] claims [illegible] the [illegible] during the settlement of the estate, is made public administrator. Philip A. Roach has also filed an application for administration of the estate, alleging in support that Blythe during his lifetime had frequently stated to him that he was unmarried. [illegible] Friday Miss Dickinson had for many years [illegible] Blythe's house but as the public administrator [illegible] there is no evidence to show that she was his wife. Blythe has acknowledged a daughter [illegible] now living in Manchester, England, [illegible] to whom he was warmly attached. A will was executed by Blythe last February and signed by him. That will is now missing and it is expected it has been destroyed. In it he left the bulk of his property to his daughter and only $10,000 to Miss Dickinson. As the amount involved is large interesting developments are looked for.

Pushing Toward Oregon

San Francisco, April 11.—[Special.]—In an interview this afternoon with Charles Crocker, vice-president of the Central and Southern Pacific railroads, he stated to an Oregonian correspondent that it was proposed to expedite the construction of a California and Oregon railroad by every means in their power. With this end in view men are being daily transferred from the Mojave division of the Southern Pacific and from certain points along the Central Pacific where work has slacked up. Contracts have been let for building a large number of cars, which will be placed on the ground as soon as the road is completed. The engineer department is exerting activity in preparing final plans. During the coming summer much more important developments will be made than during any other time previously. In a short time over 2000 men will be put to work and it is expected considerable progress will be made.

Shipments of Quicksilver

San Francisco, April 11.—The exports of quicksilver from San Francisco by water during the month of March amounted to 279 flasks, against 2444 flasks for the same month last year. For the quarter ending March 31, 1883, the exports were as follows: New York, 200 flasks, value $[illegible]; Hongkong, [illegible] flasks, value $17,512; Japan, 135 flasks, value $4,[illegible]; New Zealand, 50 flasks, value $1,[illegible]; Central America, 80 flasks, value $[illegible]; Mexico, [illegible] flasks, value $103,131; total flasks 10,[illegible], value $[illegible]. In 1882, flasks 9,209, value $268,572. The quantity sent to Mexico this year is upwards of 2000 flasks in excess of the first quarter of last year, an indication of an increase of mining developments. Hongkong has taken 200 flasks more than last year and New York 5000 less. In addition to the above 500 flasks were shipped overland in January and February, all from this city.

From San Francisco to the Sound.

San Francisco, April 11—[Special.]—A large force of men was put at work immediately on the arrival of the collier Mississippi, in order to discharge the vessel and get her in readiness to sail Friday for Seattle with 300 immigrants who were unable to obtain passage by the regular steamer George W. Elder. Despite the rush it has been found impossible to get the vessel in readiness on such short notice and her sailing has been postponed till Saturday morning. It is rumored in shipping circles that increased regular steamer service to the Sound will shortly be made. Merchants are disposed to regard the report as authentic in consequence of the large freight traffic which has been steadily increasing for the past few months.

The "Umatilla" for Portland.

San Francisco, April 11.—[Special.]—The Umatilla sails for Portland to-morrow, having heavily laden with miscellaneous freight, in addition to which she carries four locomotives and tenders consigned to the Northern Pacific. The locomotives were brought overland on flat cars and were loaded at Oakland pier in the remarkably good time of two days. Three are from Baldwin locomotive works, Philadelphia, and the others from Portland, Maine. The largest weighs over 50 tons, has eight large wheels and two small ones, and the pilot and is calculated to draw a train of 100 cars. The others average about 40 tons.

San Francisco will be Crowded.

San Francisco, April 11.—The grand chapter of Eastern Star has extended an invitation to the general grand chapter to hold the next session in this city, and it has been accepted. As the date of the convention corresponds with the triennial conclave, the influx of visitors will be largely increased. The question of hotel accommodation is each day becoming more serious. Individual members of both orders propose extending a general invitation to all those who may be unable to secure hotel accommodation to come to their private houses.

Showing of the Oregon and Transcontinental.

San Francisco, April 11.—The official statement of the property of the Oregon and Transcontinental published here to-day shows the following holdings: Northern Pacific common, 200,000 shares $23,000,000 value, Northern Pacific preferred 130,000 shares, value $16,000,000. Oregon Navigation 93,000 shares value $12,100,000; cash items, $4,000,000; total value $48,700,000; capital stock issued, $40,000,000.

Coming to the Northwest.

San Francisco, April 11.—E. B. Willis, an old coast journalist, lately on the staff of the Record Union at Sacramento, leaves on the steamer for Portland to-morrow where he has accepted a position in the chief engineer's department of the Northern Pacific railroad.

Royal Arch Masons.

CONSPIRACY TO MURDER TRIAL

The Crown's Counsel [illegible] a Speech [illegible] the Conspirators

Dublin, April 11.—The trial [illegible] Brady [illegible] Carey [illegible] the [illegible] who [illegible] the trial [illegible] as an informer. [illegible] witness that [illegible] Carey [illegible] and Carey [illegible] Brady was at hand when [illegible]

Counsel [illegible] interposed an [illegible] against the crown counsel being [illegible] by the court to [illegible]

ATTEMPT THE [illegible] THE PRISONER [illegible]

Brady by asking questions like these, which could [illegible] proved.

The judge refused to interfere.

Porter in concluding declared that Carey was put upon the witness stand. There were no rules of law which would prevent the court from accepting his evidence, unaccompanied by any corroboration, but there certainly could be no valid objection to so as would happen in the present case, if there will be produced conclusive and corroborating evidence to fortify Carey's. This case should teach one lesson, that there would be no safety among the members of such a society. The men who had instigated it would pay for it. The men who supported with funds and encouraged Carey to the dire deed had led to foreign lands. If there was any further proof required of how conspirators directed those unlawfully leagued with them it was furnished by the fact that the crown had even, in this case, been compelled to provide means for defending Brady from this terrible charge.

The first witness called was Farrell, informer, who testified at the preliminary examination of the prisoners in Kilmainham courthouse. He repeated the testimony given at that time.

During the examination of Farrell counsel for the prisoner again protested against the introduction of matters foreign to the present charge relating only to attempts made against the life of [illegible]

Judge O'Brien said only such evidence was admissible in the present case as tended to connect the prisoner with the conspiracy. Farrell's evidence went to show that Brady was associated with the Invincibles and was secretary to Curley.

James Carey was the next witness. His evidence was the same as before given.

Carey was in the witness box an hour and three quarters. He gave a detailed account of the formation of the "Invincibles," but was not allowed to go into the plots against the lives of Forster and Earl Cowper. While Carey was testifying Brady followed the evidence closely and frequently sent notes to his solicitor. Carey became perfectly cool in demeanor towards the close of his evidence. One of the knives found in Kingsland was produced that Carey might identify it as the one supplied by Sheridan from London.

Murphy, crown counsel, stated that the authorities know who Number One is and expected to make that personage [illegible] mysterious person would be produced.

Upon the conclusion of Carey's direct examination court adjourned for the day.

The president yesterday [illegible] accepted Lewis Lawrence's invitation to visit his orange plantation near Maitland and had promised to [illegible] school [illegible] at Orlando the county seat of Orange county. For some reason he arose in an irritable mood, and after an early breakfast in company with Mr. Mercer, Miss Prince and Miss [illegible] and Secretary Chandler, Mr. Miller and Secretary Phillips, he walked to the station of the South Florida railroad, entered his car and started. It ran to Maitland, 18 miles away, in about an hour. There Lewis Lawrence had carriages for the president and party, who only alighted, entered the house, shook hands with Mr. Lawrence, and said good by. The party then were driven into Winter Park, on lake Osceola.

CALIFORNIA WINES.

The Reason of the Recent Unfavorable Showing—Dealers Combining to Suppress Frauds.

New York, April 11.—[Special.]—The reason assigned by some of the California wine importers for the unfavorable showing of the trade report for the past quarter, as compared with that of 1882, is the increased shipments of California wine by rail every fortnight as New York [illegible] three houses here having special contract enabling this to be done advantageously. A large amount of that which hitherto came here by sea is now received direct by rail. In western cities most of the large California houses are selling by agents sent through the states. ACCIDENTS

CONDITIONS [illegible] ACCIDENT

N[illegible], Mich., April 11.—[Special.]—The most disastrous mine accident in the history of Lake Superior mines occurred at the [illegible] Dye mine in the Menominee iron district this afternoon. [illegible] feet of ground caved in. The engine house in which were eight men, all the mine machinery and four large boilers went down a distance of 100 to 150 feet. All the men were killed outright except Ed. Wicks, who went [illegible] 100 feet and remained on top of the debris with a leg broken at the thigh and [illegible] broken. His recovery is doubtful. The pump and boiler will be put in operation before other victims are recovered. The work will take a week or more. The mine was about to be abandoned, as the ore body was exhausted. The men were on the surface building strong pipes out of the shaft when the accident occurred. The killed as near as could be ascertained are Pat [illegible], Wm. Morris, Richard Williams, William [illegible], William Jeffrey, Thomas James and [illegible]

[illegible] EXPLOSION

[illegible], April 11.—To-day Charles [illegible] aged 18 and [illegible] started into the country carrying a can of Hercules powder. Half a mile from the city the powder exploded, instantly killing [illegible] His head was blown entirely from the body and found 100 yards from the place of the explosion. Legs, arms and other fragments of the body were scattered all over the town. One arm cannot be found. [illegible] was badly crushed. His face and head were horribly [illegible] to be seriously injured internally. There is little hope of his recovery.

An Irish Relief Bill Introduced in Parliament—The Police Watching Suspects

ENGLAND

RELIEF FOR IRELAND

London, April 10.—In the house of commons O'Connor Power on behalf of Mayo moved a resolution for the relief of Irish distress. The scheme proposes an expenditure of £4,000,000 for promoting home colonization. The money is to be advanced by the treasury and repayment in full is to be made on the land settlement, and by way of security on the assessment of the property of Ireland. The treasury will [illegible] Trevelyan, chief secretary for Ireland, said the distress is nothing like that of New York, and declared Powers' plan impracticable. Many persons were taking advantage of facilities now offered for immigration. If the motion was adopted a serious blow would be dealt the work the government is now carrying out. Powers' motion was rejected.

Trevelyan, chief secretary of Ireland, having shown a spirit of opposition to the bill, Parnell, present only for a brief time, accused him of showing a readiness to speak to order, and to turn his back upon his former principles. He (Trevelyan) and many of his colleagues had supported a similar bill brought in by Dr. Isaac Butt when the tories were in power. He sincerely hoped that this question, which had already provoked such extended controversy, would now be left to a reformed parliament and to a very different ministry.

GALLAGHER VERY ILLITERATE

London, April 11.—Bernard Gallagher, of dynamite fame, strongly urges his American citizenship. He sent letters to a United States minister praying the good offices of the American government and solemnly reiterating his innocence. The writing and spelling of the communication stamp him as a person of a very illiterate character.

EXPLOSIVE NOTES

London, April 11.—A parcel containing seven pounds of gunpowder was found yesterday near the office of the secretary of state for the home department.

The investigation at Woolwich of the contents of two cases found Monday last in a barge on the Thames shows that they are not explosives at beloved, but only fireworks.

NITRO-GLYCERINE EXPLODED

London, April 11.—A sample of the nitro-glycerine seized in London last week at the time of the arrest of Norman, Gallagher, Dalton and Wilson was exploded to-day at Woolwich in order to test its quality. The explosion was terrific, the ground for a distance of several yards from the spot where the explosion occurred being badly torn up.

PLENTY OF TESTIMONY

London, April 11.—The police claim they have enough testimony to convict the dynamite plotters without Norman.

IRELAND

AID FROM AUSTRALIA

Dublin, April 11.—The Irish national league treasurer acknowledged the receipt from Australia of £5000. The secretary received a letter from Redmond agitating the question of Irish wrong in Australia. It says the developments of the Phoenix Park murderers are doing the league such injury and materially interfere with his success.

ALLUDED TO THE AMERICAN PRESS

Cork, April 11.—The recorder in opening the session yesterday took occasion to allude to the almost unanimous opinion expressed by the American press in condemnation of Irish outrage.

RUSSIA

TRANSFERRING THE REGALIA.

St. Petersburg, April 11.—Crowds thronged the streets to witness the gorgeous ceremony of transferring the regalia of the imperial family from the Winter palace to the Kremlin at Moscow. A separate carriage was allotted each emblem. The procession consisted of officials in full uniform and in state coaches. The military paraded.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS TO BE TRIED

St. Petersburg, April 11.—Several officers of the Russian army will soon be tried for nihilism owing to the discovery of the meaning of cipher letters and bo[illegible] in some of Prince Krapotkin's documents which were given into the hands of the Russian government by the French authorities.

Berlin, April 11.—The conservative party gained an important victory in the election at East Prussia yesterday.

BERLIN NOTES

Berlin, April 11.—Owing to more genial weather the health of Bismarck is greatly improved.

Vice Admiral Von Batsch was so bitterly disappointed at his failure to receive the appointment as head of the admiralty that he has decided to retire from active service.

COMMITS SUICIDE

Berlin, April 11.—Sandmann, progressionalist member of the reichstag, has committed suicide. His mind was affected by reverses in business.

ITALY.

The Triple Treaty

Rome, April 11.—In the senate to-day the minister of foreign affairs said the sole object of the triple treaty between Austria, Germany and Italy was the preservation of peace. He emphatically denied that any of these countries was characterized by any spirit of hostility towards France. It was useless to seek the manner or form of this agreement, and the senate must be content to know that Italy withdrew from her former position of isolation. The agreement with the German powers allowed perfect reciprocity of rights.

[illegible] OF REPUBLICAN IDEAS

Rome, April 11.—The [illegible], a Roman republican, publishes a letter of Cavalotti, radical member of the chamber of deputies. He says it is perhaps a fact that the triple alliance was inspired through fears that republican ideas would obtain deeper root and spread through Europe.

It was agreed everywhere that Charles Mitchell, the English champion, is a good man, and John Madden said the American people would see more of his work. Judges of his fighting, however, were satisfied that Cleary would get away with the English champion. When Madden was asked whether he would match him with the English champion against Sullivan, he said: "Why not?"

MR. VILLARD'S VISIT.

He will go to Puget Sound Before Visiting Portland

San Francisco, April 11.—[Special.]—In conversation this evening with a gentleman who is connected with Villard in his eastern enterprises, the object of Villard's visit to the Pacific coast is to contemplate improvements [illegible] and the railroad service of the Oregon Railway and Navigation company and Northern Pacific, he stated to an Oregonian correspondent that much apprehension existed on the subject. He prefaced his remarks by stating it could be regarded as certain that Villard did not propose to revolutionize the railroad system of the coast, but merely desired to form an opinion as to how matters were progressing and that in order to do this he decided to make personal examination. During his stay in this city he is said to have done considerable work, and to have satisfied himself relative to the administration of affairs here and as to the requirements at present existing and likely to arise in course of business. Having accomplished this much he proposed to leave for the north to-morrow morning by the steamship Queen of the Pacific. Leaving the ship at Astoria and thence taking passage on a river steamer going to Kalama, and thence to Seattle, proposes to visit Puget Sound. His attention would be directed to the contemplated railroad extensions there and to general inspection of the nature of the country and business opportunities. Immigration matters will also receive their share of his time and it is not improbable that he will make such arrangements as will work greatly to the benefit of settlers. After spending a week or 10 days in the vicinity of Seattle, Tacoma and other points in Washington territory, the party will return to Portland, where much of the preliminary inspection above noted will be repeated. In addition to these features, Villard will also extend his observations so as to include a visit to Dakota. In all, something like six weeks will be consumed.

Referring to steamships under process of construction and said to be intended for Puget Sound traffic he said that the statement that the company has a large number of vessels on the ways in the yard of Cap[illegible] Corrigan was greatly exaggerated. Contracts had been given to build two steel steamships to Messrs. Harlan & Hollingham of Wilmington, Del., which will be completed in a few months. No expense will be spared to make them equal to all possible requirements of passenger accommodation. The vessels will be built with regard to the most important recent modern improvement. What the exact route of these vessels will be has not been definitely decided. Either they will run from Seattle to Victoria, including the principal ports, or may possibly be used to the present line from this city. The company are disposed to do everything in their power to facilitate shipping merchandise and the transportation of passengers. At present their vessels are being severely taxed in meeting the demands of the public, and in their endeavors to meet public demands it is not improbable that the collier Umatilla will be fitted up to accommodate passengers.

CRIME AT CALENDAR.

THE NEWHALL DISASTER CASE

Milwaukee, April 11.—The trial of Geo. Scheller, charged with setting the Newhall house on fire and causing the awful catastrophe January 10th last, by which almost 100 human beings were sacrificed, was opened in the criminal court yesterday. Great interest was evinced on every side. Long before the time set the court room was crowded. The prosecution was represented by District Attorney Clark and P. J. Somers, city attorney, while counsel for defense appeared in the person of Jeff McKenna, formerly district attorney, and A. H. Ebbetts. Scheller was the center of observation when brought into court. He was rather pale from long confinement, but looked better than when arrested. He carried himself confidently and calmly. The day's proceedings were confined to the securing of a jury, and were accordingly without special interest. Contrary to general expectation, the whole jury was empanneled before adjournment this evening. The jury is an intelligent one and it is expected that the case will make rapid progress.

CONVICTION OF A MURDERESS

Lawrence, April 11.—Margaret, or Sis Vinegar, was to-day convicted of murder in the first degree for complicity in killing David Bowman in June last. [illegible] is a negro prostitute, and enticed Bowman to a lonely spot on the bank of a river, where he was set upon by two colored accomplices, Jasper King and George Robertson, and beaten and cut with clubs and a hatchet until dead, when he was robbed and a body thrown into the river. King and Robertson were confined in jail, from which they and Pete Vinegar, father of "Sis," were taken by an armed mob and hanged from a bridge 10 days after the murder.

RELEASE OF [illegible] OF THE JAMES GANG

[illegible], April 11.—The case against Dick Liddil, a noted member of the James gang, who was convicted at the last term of the United States court of conspiracy and robbery, sentence being thus suspended, was called up to-day. Judge Bruce released Liddil upon his personal recognizance. This is considered as a settlement of the case. Liddle is free and an important witness in the Frank James trial in Missouri. All efforts to have Liddle pardoned by the president proved unavailing. His release is a circumstance that virtually removed the probability of his being imprisoned for the charge which convicted.

INDIGNANT CITIZENS.

Waxahachie, Tex., April 11.—A young Bisco named [illegible] attempted to outrage a nine-year-old daughter of Dr. N. [illegible] of this city, and the jail in which he was placed had to be guarded with a strong armed force to prevent the exasperated citizens lynching him.

Desperate Fight with Horse Thieves.

Wellington, Ks., April 11.—A posse led by Deputy United States Marshal Hollister this forenoon surrounded a party of Texas horse thieves seven miles south of the state line, below Hunnewell. Demanding their surrender they were fired on by the desperadoes and returned the fire, killing Sam Ross and wounding J. Ross, also an old man, the father of the boys, an old man is the head of the gang, surrendered. The two prisoners and the dead man were brought to this city. The party consisted of six men, but three of them were out of camp and were not captured. The horses in their possession were stolen from Clark county, Texas.

HUMBUGGED AGAIN.

I saw so much said about the merits of Hop Bitters and my wife, who was always doctoring and never well, teased me so urgently to get her some. I concluded to be humbugged again, and I am glad I did, for in less than two months' use of the Bitters my wife was cured, and she has remained so for eighteen months since. I like such humbugging.—H. T., St. Paul.—Pioneer Press.

SILVER AGAIN

When silver was r m netized and the m t was required by law to con te n ll ns f silver dollars each month it was f edy pr dicted that the time w all arrive w [illegible] be necessary either to repeal th s act and stop the coinage or to accept silver as the c rren y of the country That this prediction has not yet been verified is no proof that it will not be. On the contrary the tendency of things is plainly and rapidly toward verificat n [illegible] Silver is worth at th time never less than when our silver law was passed The value of the silver in each dollar is no more than about 82 cents yet the dollar purports to be worth 100 cents. At all places of deposit [illegible] silver dollars are steadily accumulating in the vaults of the treasury and its branches hundreds of tons of them are stored and the [illegible] steadily and rapidly adding to the stock. It is apparent that whenever, through unlimited coinage silver dollars which are worth less than gold dollars become abundant as compared with gold creditors will ask [illegible] of their cheapness and pay their debts public and private in the cheaper money. At once this would cause the withdrawal of gold from circulation and depreciation of the greenback to the silver standard would then would disappear, and the country would be flooded with silver coin worth much less than its face value. All this was foretold from the first and it is certainly coming to pass, unless the coinage of silver on the present basis be discontinued by order of congress.

In Texas they have a foretaste of it already. A Houston paper says that merchants and bankers of that city are so burdened by transactions in silver dollars as to be obliged to notify their customers that they will be charged the current rate of discount on silver remitted by them. This discount will be the cost of sending silver east. When it is observed that thirty thousand dollars in silver weigh a ton it [illegible] that it is expensive to handle them in large sums, even in freight. So far [illegible] has not yet [illegible] itself and has [illegible] the cheaper silver [illegible] the latter can be used [illegible] but just so soon as [illegible] silver shall [illegible] by the abundance of it [illegible] will go to its bullion [illegible] the standard [illegible] it will go [illegible] Of course, prices will [illegible] Nothing, however is [illegible] the cheap money delusion [illegible] It is still very common [illegible] money is the thing for [illegible] of all devices for [illegible] the most effective [illegible]

[illegible] the outlook for [illegible] has submitted [illegible] relating to [illegible] to us with [illegible] publicly

What is the population of your city (Portland) at [illegible] prospects of [illegible]

[illegible] Portland [illegible] one city is about 30 [illegible] Chinese. The subject of [illegible] prospective growth is a big one, and [illegible] which there are many theories; but [illegible] that the increase in popu[lation] [illegible] the next few years [illegible] to its present size, or to [illegible] of its present popula[tion] [illegible] commanding position in re[lation to] the Columbia and Willamette rivers [illegible] of the country which has [illegible] as highways A [illegible] the only other [illegible] of the city "From [illegible] will hold, through its [illegible] the business of the riv[er] [illegible] in the past, and by means of [illegible] building she will become the [illegible] times [illegible] than the old East. Much of [illegible] country [illegible] it abounds in resources [illegible] attractions to immigra[nts] [illegible] is already developed [illegible] well populated [illegible] and regular business [illegible] under [illegible] Portland will become the business [illegible] in wealth and [illegible] one year [illegible] old [illegible] field and [illegible] the stimulus of quicker [illegible] means of communication and [illegible] are advancing in every ma[terial] way with prodigious speed. And for [illegible] the opening of a direct through route to the east promises to bring to us the highest advantages.

Portland is not beginning to realize the new [illegible] opening about it. Its streets are [illegible] its business a pros[perity] [illegible] precedent or even the fairest [illegible] its hotels [illegible] and are [illegible] strained to the highest point to make room for growing business, increasing population and projected enterprises Portland must of necessity gain greatly in population. New thousands will be needed to transact the great business which the new conditions are already directing here, and [illegible] will be needed in manu[facturing] [illegible] already projected and soon to be set in motion. It is the judgment [illegible] that Portland will [illegible] from date [illegible] its growth will be at a [illegible] rate The questioner asks [illegible]

Therefore few places in the United States where real estate pays taxes, cost of repairs, insurance and interest on the money invested and Portland is one of them Real estate val[ues] have advanced greatly during the past year and are still advancing, but prices in the city are not unreasonably high. We have not heard of a purchase which cannot be made [to] yield full interest on the investment. [illegible] speculation is going on, but prices for city prop[erty] proper cannot be said to have reached "speculative figures". Business property yields splendid dividends, and residence property [illegible] which in few places is good for [illegible] than its growth in value here if properly managed, yields all charges and [illegible] rate of interest. While the north and [illegible] ends alternately enjoy the advantage of "booms," no quarter can upon [illegible] claim special advantages as a locality for investment. The business part of the city must always be compact owing to the lay of the land between the hills and the river but [illegible] dence streets will stretch in every direction And no quality is assuring, or is likely to secure a monopoly of wealth or [illegible] It would hardly be possible to make an investment in real estate within the limits of [the] land which if managed with the smallest degree of prudence, would not be profitable to the investor

Gov Butler has scandalized the culture of Massachusetts and is in deep disgrace [illegible] reason, as he thought for vetoing a bill sent him by the legislature [illegible] to reinforce his argument by saying that the Christian [illegible] in the third century [illegible] and [illegible] The [illegible] ago was sent to the legislature, where it was referred to a committee [illegible] report written [illegible] the governor [illegible] The report show [illegible] that the [illegible] what [illegible] Massachusetts governor [illegible] Butler is in disgrace

The Walla Walla Statesman [illegible] Moses [illegible] his efforts that [illegible] Mr Brents [illegible] the politician's point [illegible] so that he did any wrong, in the matter [illegible] visitors who wanted the lands, capitalists [illegible] wanted [illegible] mines and politicians [illegible] ways meddling in matters which [illegible] carry them urged him to apply to [illegible] taken from Moses, and he did so [illegible] [illegible] four thousand [illegible] The president of the United States [illegible] the reserve to Moses, and promised him upon the faith of the government that he and his people should hold it as their permanent home The number of Indians on this reserve or those [illegible] who [illegible] now putting [illegible] no [illegible] The president had no more right in good morals to take this reserve or any part of it away from Moses than he has to rob Mr Brents of his private land [illegible] much an act of dishonesty to rob [illegible] white men

The Canadians are getting restless The source of government is too far away The Montreal Herald says What we are claiming and what is claimed and desired we fully believe by the great majority of the people of Canada is that we should have the right and power within ourselves [illegible] treaties of a purely commercial nature with foreign countries instead of having the work done for us by others We know our wants and our trade relations with our neighbors better than they can possibly be known in Downing street It is a fact that in nearly every instance the interests of Canada have suffered when English diplomats have undertaken to act for us with the Americans, not through any want of earnestness or honesty on the part of those who were acting as our representatives but through a want of knowledge as to Canada's requirements When England [illegible] [illegible] otherwise her relations would be a more [illegible] and farce.

Eastman Chief of police Lappeus was formerly acquitted of the charges made against him in connection with the Walla Walla small pox case This exoneration is the result of a searching examination of the whole matter A foolish and vicious effort has been made to make a mountain out of a mole hill and it has of course failed The people of Portland and of the whole country ought to know that Mr Lappeus is not a man who shirks duty because it is dangerous or disagreeable

The high license movement is extending Walla Walla has adopted it fixing the license rate at $500 and the question is being agitated in various other cities hereabout The legislatures of the state and Washington territory will be asked at their next sessions to enact general high license laws

The Daily Standard announces that it will begin shortly to [illegible] telegraphic report and will furnish the regular [illegible] full news An independent democratic daily here containing the news can make its mark, and the friends of the Standard will be gratified to see it fill the bill

Charles Crocker told an OREGONIAN reporter yesterday at San Francisco that it was proposed to push the work of construction on the O & C R R The rapid growth of business both through and local prompts the new exercise of energy

It will be the duty of the police to arrest to day every person who sells liquors without having first complied with the law If Dick Gerdes is still fighting for the bastile he should be promptly gratified.

Freights and Markets—General Inactivity and Business Unsatisfactory.

NEW YORK, April [illegible] —Special.] Threatening weather caused quietness at the wharves of California ships and but little is doing The Arabia and William Gilchrist will finish by the end of the week if the weather is good Offerings are not large or in great variety and are mostly from regular shippers there being few if any outsiders in the market Rates are less firm Notwithstanding the fact that full prices are paid for ships the demand for tonnage is slack in all directions There are no new engagements for this trade

[illegible] between the Sunset route and the Delaware and Lackawanna and Western railroad is still going on the former being the [illegible] this afternoon by the [illegible] per cent on [illegible] bulk goods [illegible] via New Orleans It is said the result of the meeting of the pool lines is that they will treat [illegible] freight [illegible] withstanding the [illegible] market there has been but little improvement in general trade.

How and Why Moses was Deprived of It

WALLA WALLA, April 11 —[Special.]—An editorial in Monday's OREGONIAN suggested that perhaps Senator Brents could throw light on the subject of cutting off a part of Moses reservation With this object in view a Statesman's representative waited upon him on his return from the country Brents cheerfully gave information respecting his action in the matter He said he worked upon representations and a petition of miners who had located in and on the reservation and wanted to believe that Moses Indians numbered only 400 All he asked of Washington was either to curtail Moses reservation or have him removed to another reservation He did not specify what portion of the reservation was to be thrown open All he did was to recommend throwing open a part Secretary Teller informed him it would be done and proper papers be [illegible] on him Brents sent them on to his territory He did not know but Moses was properly notified and that it was all satisfactory to him There are gold and silver ledges and placer mines known to be rich on the reservation Quite a lot of petitions and letters were sent him mostly from parties interested in mines Among others interested were Mar[illegible] Nick Cowan [illegible] secretary of the territory and a man named [illegible] who is private secretary to Senator Miller of California Several Portland capitalists are also interested in the mines

CITY COUNCIL.

A Short Session Last Evening—Several Bills Paid—Chief of Police Lappeus Completely Exonerated—Money Refunded to Liquor Dealers.

Pursuant to adjournment last Wednesday evening, the city council met in special session last night, Mayor Chapman presiding. The meeting lasted just 15 minutes, and was for the purpose of clearing up the unfinished business of the last regular session. The lobby was quite well filled with liquor dealers, noticeable among them being Frank Harrington, all of whom were anxious to learn if any notice was to be taken of their declaration of war against the new ordinance, but in this they were disappointed. At roll call there were present Councilmen Adams, Hewitt, Holman, Honeyman, McKay, Scoggins and Smith. The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was dispensed with upon motion of Councilman Honeyman.

PETITIONS.

From John Wilhelm, the proprietor of a beer saloon on Washington street, between Second and Third, who claims that on the first legal day of the month of April of this year he did apply for a license to sell beer at $50 a quarter and it was through no fault of his that the license was not granted; there are no asked that a license to sell beer for three months be given to him upon the payment of $50. The petition was referred to the committee on judiciary.

From Louis Eppinger, stating that he paid his license upon his two saloons at the rate of $800 per annum, according to the liquor ordinance, and asking that the amount overpaid above what the new existing $400 ordinance demanded be refunded to him by the council. The and further stated that the ordinance would be introduced later in the evening for the relief of Mr. Eppinger and others, and the petition was passed over.

From William Kelly and other, asking for the improvement of North Twentieth street; referred to the committee on streets and public property.

REPORT OF THE SMALL-POX INVESTIGATION.

The following report was then read and unanimously indorsed by all the members of the council present, which effectually settles the baseless charges recently preferred against Chief of Police Lappeus:

To the Members of the Common Council of the City of Portland—We, your committee on judiciary and health and police, to whom was referred the communication from the honorable mayor and common council of the city of Walla Walla, in reference to the conduct of J. H. Lappeus, chief of police of the city of Portland, in permitting a man afflicted with smallpox to pass through the city of Portland, would respectfully report:

That we have received and read the affidavits of Wm. M. King, J. M. Rees, Dr. C. W. Shaw, E. C. Marshall, B. F. Prine, C. W. Coffey, Louis F. Marshall, J. G. Justice and Dr. Alfred N. Marion, forwarded to us by James. McAuliff, mayor of Walla Walla, and have taken the testimony of James M. Gorman, Dr. G. M. Wells, Dr. G. C. Lane, Dr. John English, Charles Britzmacher, J. F. Goodwin, J. N. Jaudy, Charles Whitehead, J. B. Pithian and J. H. Lappeus, and reduced the same to writing and herewith return the same, together with said affidavits, for your consideration.

We find from such evidence and affidavits that the chief of police used proper care in the examination of the man Hale, or Thompson, and acted according to his best judgment in deciding that the man was not afflicted with smallpox, and hence we recommend that he be exonerated from blame by reason of his said conduct. Respectfully submitted,

W. E. ADAMS,
W. L. CHITTENDEN,
D. MACKAY,
W. A. SCOGGIN,

Com. on Health and Police and Judiciary.

The above report was accompanied by the affidavits received from Walla Walla and the testimony taken before the committees, all of which were placed among the records of the city.

CLAIMS ORDERED PAID.

The following claims against the city were read and ordered paid.

Portland Gas Light Company	$165 20	T. J. Johnson	$ 2 20
John Donnerberg	2 00	G. W. Bell	120 30
Willamette Iron Works	26 80	S. G. Bunting	1 30
		Jefferson St. Ferry Company	66 00

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Petition of A. H. Johnson and others for the extension of Salmon street; referred to the committee on streets and public property.

The ordinance authorizing the purchase of a lot in Couch's addition for the purposes of a branch police station was taken up, read a second time and laid over until the next meeting.

NEW ORDINANCES.

Making an appropriation out of the general fund of $.00 for the relief of Louis Eppinger, Thomas Guthman and George E. Lutz, who had paid liquor licenses under the 1800 ordinance; passed unanimously.

Amending section 1 of the ordinance providing for the drawing of warrants for the payment of salaries out of the general fund; read twice.

ENGROSSED ORDINANCE.

Providing for the time and manner of improving Clay street from Front street to Twelfth street; passed.

RESOLUTIONS.

The following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That the sum of $3 79 be paid for certain street improvements.

Resolved, That the resolution passed April 4 for the improvement of Eleventh street from R street to Montgomery street be and is hereby rescinded.

The council then adjourned.

THE EAST SIDE.

A BAD BREAK.

Yesterday afternoon a mortar bed containing a few tons of mortar in preparation for the stone foundation of Hall & Stott's new brick block, near the bridge on the west side of Fourth street, near the corner of J, by reason of its weight. The accident was caused by the rottenness of the stringer supporting that portion of the roadway on which the weight rested. The weight of the falling material also broke the water main, which is situated immediately underneath, allowing the water to escape. But the water was turned off as soon as possible and a force of men at once set to work to repair the damage to the main. The break in the bridge is about 12 feet long by four feet wide. The location of the accident is the same where a bent was forced from its position while the West house was being taken across the bridge. No permission had been granted by the city to the parties obstructing the street by their building material, and they were warned against putting much weight upon it in the vicinity of the accident but they went ahead recklessly, agreeing to become responsible for all risks.

USING OBSCENE LANGUAGE.

Mrs. A. Mahon, residing on the corner of Eighth and I streets, was arraigned in Justice Stiker's court for using abusive and obscene language toward Mrs. Dillman, a neighbor. The prisoner pleaded not guilty, and on motion of S. B. Harrington, prosecuting attorney, the case was continued for one week.

NOTES.

J. L. Sperry is suffering with an attack of quinsy.

The new sidewalks on G street have been completed to Fourth street.

Entertainment by Miss Adena R. Luse at Baptist church to-morrow night.

Several substantial new business houses will be opened in the course of a few days.

The entertainment under the auspices of the Episcopal church, April 18, will take the form of a promenade concert and fancy fair.

Rev. J. W. Sellwood has returned from eastern Oregon, and the usual services will occur at the Episcopal church Sunday next.

A crowd of curious men assembled at Justice Stiker's court last evening, to witness a sparring match between two women, but were disappointed.

The new ferry landing will not be used till Water street is improved, which will necessitate the raising of the present grade of that street about five feet.

Captain Hawks, of the police force, was preparing to appear in the sparring exhibition at New Market theater, but after "andress" rehearsal with one of the knockers, concluded he didn't want any of it.

A man having symptoms of both insanity and drunkenness was arrested on the streets by the marshal yesterday morning. The symptoms continued to show themselves after he was jailed, by an unearthly racket during the day. He gave his name as Harrington. He will have an examination this morning.

SALEM NOTES.

FROM THE OREGONIAN'S LOCAL CORRESPONDENT.

SALEM, April 11.

Miss Cora Baker of Portland is visiting Miss Ella Wright of this city.

Robt. A. Miller, associate editor of the Vidette, is in the city on a flying business trip.

Hon. W. D. Fenton and family, of Lafayette, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett of this city.

Vacant houses are a thing of the past in Salem. Fifty would find occupants to-day were they to be had.

The condition of Miss Althea Mooren is practically unchanged, although her friends expect ultimate recovery.

L. M. Haines has rented a store room on Commercial street and will remove back to Portland at an early day.

Governor Moody has appointed C. B. Bellinger, Sidney Dell and R. D. Coy, of Portland, notaries public for the ensuing two years.

George J. Pearce, of Alert book and ladder company No. 1 has made application to the board of fire delegates for an exempt certificate.

The family of A. Grant, manager of the City of Salem company's interest in this city, are passengers on the Australian steamer for San Francisco, and will arrive here in a short time.

Mrs. D. Payton will on Thursday evening next entertain a number of the young people of this city, the gathering being in honor of Miss Ella Meyer, niece of Hon. Ed. Hirsch, state treasurer, who is visiting in this city.

Capt. U. S. Scott will soon vacate his present home, on the corner of Court and Church streets, and will move his family to McMinnville for the benefit of his wife's health. Colonel W. H. H. Waters will occupy Capt. Scott's residence.

The Jubilee Singers were not greeted with a very large house. Salemites were much disappointed in Manager Steinhard's failure to send the Palmer troupe as promised, and for which 250 reserved seats had been disposed of, and were not prepared to accept the minstrels as a substitute.

The camp fire by Sedgwick Post No. 1, G. A. R., last evening, at the Good Templars' hall in this city proved a novel and entertaining feature in the social life of our fair city. The hall was crowded with members of the post, their families and invited guests, and the programme, while of an impromptu character, was none the less pleasant, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, readings and impromptu speeches by Hon. J. J. Murphy, Judge P. H. D'Arcy, Hon. C. B. Moores and others and last, but not least by any means, the hard tack, baked pork and beans and black coffee, sandwiches 'tis true, by other delicacies, but none the less a reminder of the tented field on that account. The display of tin cups and empty oyster cans gave the table the appearance of camp life, and numerous incidents of the war recited by those surrounding it gave the feast additional zest. Prof. Frank Cooper made his debut before a Salem audience as a vocalist and literally brought down the house, richly deserving the encore so enthusiastically given him. Comrades Henry Cooper and Ira Erb are practicing a double song and dance for the next camp fire, and bid fair to eclipse anything heretofore attempted in that line. The affair throughout was a grand success and future camp fires will be largely attended.

SCHEFFLER'S WINES AND BRANDIES.

It is Valuable to Know

That California chemists decide Wm. Scheffler's St. Helena, Edge Hill, Vacuum Distilled Grape Brandy free from the fusil oils. Pure and unadulterated, physicians say it is sanatary, and recommend it in preference to all others in medical prescriptions. Scheffler's sherry, port, amber, claret white angelica and sweet muscat wines have stood comparison with other wines for years, and are universally acknowledged to be of superior quality.

Farmers and Mechanics.

A FEW VERY PLAIN WORDS

Which we have to address

TO THE PUBLIC

Before we publish our next Price List.

IF

It sets some people thinking,

THEN

Our object is attained.

IF

It chagrins others,

THEN

It must bear the stamp of Truth upon its face.

WE BELIEVE IT WILL DO BOTH.

The main reason for the efficacy of advertisements lies in their truth. When a firm place itself before the public in long-winded sentences, and those sentences lack the main essential, "truth," then that firm may as well save the trouble as well as expense, for the people will surely discover their falsities.

The FARMERS AND MECHANICS' has expended more money among the journals of this State than many storekeepers possess as a working capital. It still continues to add thousands of dollars to its expense account for advertising. Does any one believe that such a thing could be possible unless it proved remunerative?—and what is more, that it would prove remunerative unless those advertisements were simple truths based upon facts?

When we tell the people that our goods are directly imported from the EASTERN MANUFACTORIES, we do not mean that they were imported through the San Francisco merchants.

When we advertise ONE PRICE TO ALL we do so without any mental reservation, for we do not then have in our mind any preferred customer whom we may favor above others.

When we announce a line of STAPLE GROCERIES at a certain price, then we are careful to always have them in stock.

In this manner we could go on interminably, and show the difference between a real, genuine and sincere advertisement and a real, genuine catchpenny ad.

Our last week's price list on Clothing brought us an avalanche of country orders, and it would afford us great pleasure to prove by our sales books to any "doubting Thomas" that within the last eight days we sold over 360 Gents' Suits of Clothing. We venture the assertion that in the purchase of this clothing the people saved at least 33 1-3 per cent. of the prevailing Portland prices.

WE BELIEVE THIS WILL SET THE PEOPLE THINKING.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1883.

FUNERAL OF E. J. NORTHRUP.

Tribute by His Pastor, Rev. George W. Izer—Impressive Services.

Yesterday the remains of E. J. Northrup were laid to rest in Lone Fir cemetery. Services were held at the family residence, corner of East Park and Madison streets, at 11 A. M., and were attended by a large concourse of friends. So great was the number that only a small part could get within the portals of the residence. Many availed themselves of the privilege of a last look at one whom they loved in life, whose head now lay on a pillow of roses. Floral offerings were many and beautiful, and their designs expressive and appropriate, the cross, the anchor, the crown, the wreath, the column at the head and the sickle on the casket being most noticeable. The Taylor-street Methodist Episcopal church choir rendered very impressively Mr. Northrup's favorite hymns: "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and "Beulah Land." On Easter Sunday, when congregations throughout the land were honoring the remains of John Howard Payne, brought to this country for a final resting place, Mr. Northrup requested the organist, Mrs. S. M. Smith, to play "Home, Sweet Home" for the recessional. This was Mr. Northrup's last request in church matters, and it was deemed appropriate that the sweetest of all household melodies should be sounded over his remains, so Mrs. Smith played the strains as the casket was being carried from the house. Rev. J. H. Acton offered a feeling prayer, and Rev. George W. Izer, pastor of Taylor street church, delivered the following eloquent

TRIBUTE:

Beloved, we are gathered to pay the last tribute of respect to the mortal remains of our dear, departed friend and brother E. J. Northrup. In another hour we will bear his manly form to its cypress shade, a quiet resting place, and then we shall look on it no more, till quickened anew by the power of the resurrection it shall spring out of decay and corruption into the beauteous immortality and the ineffable glory of the "just made perfect."

The following brief sketch of his secular and business life, which appeared in THE OREGONIAN of April 10, may be of interest:

"E. J. Northrup was born in Albany, New York, July 4, 1836. He spent several years of his early life in school, but while still a little lad was put to business, in which he early displayed the cardinal requirements—capacity, diligence and integrity. He soon found an excellent position in a firm in the city of Boston, and rose and there till 1852, when he came to Oregon. Arriving in Portland he entered into the employ of Northrup & Symonds, of which firm his father was senior member, and remained with them as a clerk till 1856, when, associating himself with Mr. J. M. Blossom, he succeeded to the business of the firm. From 1856 till about five years ago Mr. Northrup continued [illegible] through its several [illegible]. Failing health then for a time compelled him to rest, and he sold to Messrs. Thompson, DeHart & Co. the business which for so many years he had directed. A year's rest fully restored his health, and he became a partner anew, in which he continued since till about a month ago, when he associated with him Messrs. J. E. Hamilton and J. G. Chown. In the business community Mr. Northrup has been a prominent figure for nearly thirty years, [illegible], reliable and public-spirited, he [illegible] successful and prosperous.

Mr. Northrup was among the active and enterprising men who in the early history of the city organized its institutions and gave character to its [illegible]

[illegible] Mr. Northrup was married to Miss Frances [illegible], who survives him, and to her care he [illegible] children, two sons and three daughters." "We are still wanderers amid grief and fear,
But thou art tenant of you brighter sphere.
* * * * *
"Thou art amid the deathless, we still here
Amid things mortal, in a land of graves.
* * * * *
"Thou art amid the sorrowless, we here
Amid the sorrowing and yet not long
Shall we remain amid sin and fear, and wrong;
Soon shall we join thee in thy glorious song.
Thy day has come, not gone;
Thy sun has risen, not set;
Thy life is now beyond
The reach of death or change;
Not ended, but begun.
Such shall our life be on,
And then—the meeting day
How full of light and joy!
All fear of grief cast out,
All shadows passed away,
The union marred forever
Betwixt us and our Lord."

Beloved brother, thou hast escaped out of the world into glory. Thy lips are silent, but thou dost still speak to us. Thou dost rest from thy labors, but thy works follow thee. Could we call thee back to our midst, neither thy words nor thy deeds would need to be changed to show us the Christ-life and to inspire us with motives to goodness. Brother, we pledge thee, in this sacramental hour, by this altar-place of thine own body, to join thee in thy Paradise-rest. We are bereaved, we are lonely. When we meet, as oft thou hast known us, and as oft thou hast mingled with us, in our sanctuary services and in our official gatherings, how, oh how we will miss thee!

Rearing, brothers, we are all going; but, brothers, let us dry our tears, we are all going the same way. They who have gone before, as they crowd the gates of bliss to bid us welcome about one to another through all their ranks "They are coming!" Brothers, they mean us—they beckon us. True, it is night with us now—night dawn in a vale of tears; and weeping may endure for the night, but, thank God, "joy cometh in the morning." Yes, yes! it must be so, for

"We shall all meet again in the morning"
Bright will that morn of eternity dawn;
Death shall be banished, his sceptre be gone,
Joyfully, then, shall we witness his doom,
Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home."
"In the room of this gift foreshadowed Present
There shall be a Present,
In whose reign no grief shall ever gnaw the heart,
And never shall a tender tie be broken."

O, blessed Jesus! Thou art the resurrection and the life! We die, but we shall live again. Nay, rather, living and believing in Thee we shall never die. Thanks be unto God, who giveth us the victory.

Services at the grave were private. The pall-bearers were: Henry Failing, James Steel, J. J. Meston, Joseph A. Strowbridge, Lloyd Brooke and T. H. Crawford. The choir sang "Shall We Gather at the River," and the Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Izer. The remains were buried alongside of Herbert Northrup, and now father and son are covered by one mound. "He giveth his beloved sleep."

[illegible]

"[illegible] died on" [illegible]
[illegible] soft in the west,
[illegible] beautiful sank to his rest,
[illegible] the stream."
[illegible]

"In word and life" he represented the true idea of the church of God. He held and maintained that [illegible] the business of the church, is to [illegible] "spiritual house-[illegible]." He battled with devotion [illegible] forwarded with zeal every movement [illegible] the piety and religious [illegible] of the church. We remember with remorse [illegible] great faithfulness in the [illegible] carried on in our midst a few [illegible] left his business daily for five [illegible] between the hours of two [illegible] in the afternoon, and then [illegible] of his counting-room, [illegible] through the same period, [illegible] desire for souls, especially [illegible] the youth of the church [illegible] never-forgotten prayer for the Sunday school.

Beloved, time fails us, the life does not; it is rich and full of magnificent fruit, after this brief [illegible], but having lifted you to its loftier peaks, we must leave you to the more studied survey. This community, of which he was a valued citizen, has suffered loss; this church, of which he was an honored member, has suffered great loss; this family, of which he was the faithful head, has suffered irreparable loss. The blow fell upon us with startling suddenness, and, to all human thought, most untimely. Truly, "in the midst of life," not in the "yellow leaf," not at the close of days, not in the decadence of old age, when the "keepers of the house tremble, and the strong men bow themselves, and the grasshopper has become a burden, and the almond tree is in blossom," not in the midst of affliction, or by the power of disease, but in the midst of his life, in the midst of his years, with manhood still strong upon him, and hope still bright before him, our beloved brother died. Mystery of mysteries is death, but what is the mystery of such a death. Be still my heart and wait in silent awe on God. "Thou shalt know," but it will be in that hereafter where thou shalt not "know in part, but know as thou art known." Seek not to penetrate this hollow, dare not to lift the veil hung in thick folds and shrouding in clouds and darkness the secret things of the Most High in this mournful bereavement. We cannot see, but not seeing we can believe. Believe that God, our God, will work even this heavy affliction into His all-wise plan for the good of the community, for the good of the church, for the good of the family. What! Yes, for the good of the family, for the good of the bereaved and widowed companion, and of the stricken and orphaned sons and daughters. It is the language of trust, I admit, but it is safe to trust. O, Thou ever-living, all-wise God.

"We lift our bleeding hearts to Thee
And, wee sing, still would say, amen!
What now we know not, we shall see
Sometime, and we can wait till then."

"We will be so fast and assuage the feeling
We may not wholly stay:
By silence sanctifying, not concealing
The grief that must have way."

We may weep—"Jesus wept," and tears are the precious dew drops that water the flowers of affection on the graves of those we love. But we ought to seek something higher than the mere indulgence of our sorrow; we ought to study well the lesson God would teach us. "Be ye also, be ye alway ready. Here ye have no continuing city; ye are pilgrims and strangers and sojourners, even as were your fathers."

Thanks be to God for the life and for the lesson, And then, dear brother, what a superior joy is thine. "Thou art in heaven, we still on earth."

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

Washington News in General.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The story telegraphed from Washington to the effect that the British minister had been swindled out of a considerable sum of money by one who professed to have knowledge of a plot to blow up the legation building, was positively denied yesterday by Minister West. He said the person mentioned called on him and directed attention to a matter, which on investigation proved unfounded, and which was not in any manner connected with an attempt to blow up the legation building. He paid no money for the alleged information, but merely heard what the person had to say, investigated it and found it untrue.

Returns received by the department of agriculture from the spring wheat region show that seeding was in progress on the 1st of April, but not anywhere finished. In Dakota and parts of Minnesota it had hardly commenced, large areas being still covered with snow. The department, therefore, cannot attempt to estimate the probable yield of spring wheat.

Secretary Folger held a conference yesterday with the director of the mint and the Hawaiian minister regarding the request of the Hawaiian government to have its silver money coined at the United States mints. It was decided to grant the request, and the preliminary arrangements for coinage will be made at once. The mint at San Francisco was selected as the place of coinage. The dies will probably be made at the Philadelphia mint. The Hawaiian silver coins are to be one each of the denominations of one dollar, half-dollars, quarter and eighth-dollars.

Merrick, Davis & Kerr, government counsel in the star route case, positively deny the published report that they have changed in regard to the conduct of the case. Kerr said he would soon sever his connection with the case. Merrick said he intended to perform what he owed the government at any cost. He would not leave the case until it had been prosecuted to conclusion.

The solicitor of the treasury had made an adverse report on the case of Cuendet, a prominent jeweler of St. Louis, arrested for smuggling $15,000 worth of diamonds from Paris. Cuendet admitted the charge and agreed to pay duty on the value of the goods, and also 50 per cent in addition, which it seems was exacted from him. District Attorney Bliss, of St. Louis, reported that there were mitigating circumstances, and did not think Cuendet should be indicted. The solicitor does not agree with the district attorney, holds it a proper case for indictment and criticises the action of the authorities in exacting an addition of 50 per cent. on the value of the diamonds while the offender was in duress.

A memorial has been sent the president by the president and board of directors of the central committee on national labor legislation, petitioning for an extra session of congress, to be called as early as practicable, for the purpose of considering the relations between labor and capital. The memorialists claim to represent wage-workmen of the United States in the matter of promoting certain legislation promised by a resolution of the senate, adopted in 1882. They call the attention of the president to the fact that nearly a year has elapsed since the adoption of that resolution to investigate the relations between capital and labor, yet no report on the subject is made by the committee to which it was referred, nor is there any sign of remedial legislation. The form of investigation was gone through with they say, during a single week of the last session of congress, but further time was asked by the committee to enable them to travel over the country and continue what appears to be a useless expenditure of time and public money in collecting facts already known. They add: "It appears to your memorialists an absurdity for a committee of senators to go around the country junketing and feasting at public expense, to gather cumulative testimony in support of facts evident to all who read, and it is trifling with the indigent feelings of intelligent workmen, who are aggrieved people." They request the president, if he feels hampered by the conflicting opinions of his party committees, to call together the representatives of the people elected last fall and submit to their adjudication this problem of remedial legislation in the interest of oppressed wage-workmen.

Postmaster-General Gresham arrived last night, and was received at the depot by a committee from the Indiana republican club and driven to the residence of John W. Foster, where he met a number of old friends and was introduced to many new ones. He will be a guest of General Foster for a few days.

Georgia Democratic Convention.

ATLANTA, April 11.—The democratic state convention met yesterday. C. C. Jones was made temporary chairman, and Charles F. Crisp, congressman-elect from the third district, permanent chairman. After recess the following persons were placed in nomination for governor: James I. Boynton, P. Bacon, H. McDaniel, Phillip Cocks and L. Simmons. First ballot—Boynton, 139; Bacon, 145. There were four other ballots, the fifth resulting as follows: Boynton, 131; Bacon, 132 McDaniel, 31; Cocks, 13; Simmons, 8. Necessary for a choice, 176.

A Nun Asks Release from her Vows.

MONTREAL, April 11.—Bishop Fabre, yesterday referring to the case of the young nun who wants to be released from the convent, said she could leave the convent when she wished. No one could hinder her in her civil rights, but to her vows she assumed for five years certain obligations which it is a matter of conscience for her to decide to abandon or not. Her release from a vow which will now soon expire has been asked at Rome and refused.

Tobacco and Whisky.

CINCINNATI, April 10.—Twelve hundred cigar makers on a strike demand an increase of $1 per thousand in consequence of taking off the tax of $3 per thousand. At a meeting this morning it was reported that several manufacturers had agreed to give the increase. Holders of bonded whisky are taking steps to form a company to facilitate the exportation of whisky. They favor Bermuda as the place.

New York Greenbackers.

ALBANY, April 10.—The state convention of the national greenback labor party will be held at Rochester September 4.

New Orleans Races.

NEW ORLEANS, April 10.—On the fifth day the track was heavy. First race, five-eighths of a mile—Unknown and Bridget were starters. The former won and Bridget's jockey was ruled off the course for pulling her. Time 1:11.

In the three-fourths mile race Boulevard beat Buckmaster 10 lengths. Time 2¼.

Heat race, seven-eighths mile—Mary Corbett won in two straight heats, defeating Pytonia, Lizzie and Pope. Time 1:38½, 1:41.

One-eighth mile—Saunterer, first; Hickory Jim, second; Juliette, third.

Three-quarters mile—Montrose, first; Pat Cregin second; Von Moltke, third. Time, 1:22½.

Verdict in a Libel Suit.

DETROIT, April 11.—The libel suit of Professor McLane, of the medical department of the state university, against James E. Scripps, editor, principal and proprietor of the Evening News, of this city, after two weeks' trial, concluded last evening. The verdict on all points was in favor of the plaintiff, awarding $2000 damages, the heaviest verdict ever recorded in this city. The trial was quite ably conducted. Every step excited great public interest.

The Panama Canal.

NEW YORK, April 10.—[Special.]—Speaking of the Panama canal, a morning paper says: When it is reflected how much remains to do, and how long the preliminaries have dragged, it seems likely that the canal will not be open before the year 1890 at least, and the statistics of Lieutenant Rodgers show that the sum of $26,000,000 has already been expended. It is also reasonable to suppose that the original estimate of the cost will be exceeded. Still the existing expenditures include the cost of all the machinery thus far ordered, as well as the purchase of grounds, while about 8,000 men are under constant pay. Beside the eagerness with which the company's shares were taken up makes obvious that more money could easily be raised if required, and in any case it would seem possible to enlarge the total stock instead of calling on the original subscribers to put in more money.

That wonderful catholicon known as Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has given the lady a world-wide reputation for doing good. It is taken in the spring to the vital condition. Her Blood Purifier will do more to cleanse the channels of the circulation and purify the life of the body than all the sanitary devices of the Board of Health.

NOTABLE DEAD.

AN OLD CITIZEN OF CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Isaac H. Burch, who years ago was one of Chicago's principal merchants and wealthiest citizens, but who has resided most of the time in Europe for the past 18 years, died at Nice to-day.

AN OHIO EDITRESS.

CHICAGO, April 11.—Miss C. Darst, engrossing clerk of the Ohio senate and a treasurer of the Circleville, O., Herald, a well known newspaper writer died here suddenly this evening, having come here for medical treatment.

"Dr. Benson's Celery and Chamomile Pills are worth their weight in gold in nervous and sick headache."—Dr. H. H. Schlichter, of Baltimore.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Teller Indignant.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Teller is indignant, and denies the truth of the paragraph which appeared in a Philadelphia paper this morning, to the effect that Senator Conkling had been trading upon his influence at the interior department. The story was that Conkling had, for a considerable sum of $50,000, used his personal influence to secure the secretary's signature to an important paper, which would not have otherwise been signed. "Of all the silly stories that get into newspapers," said Teller to-day, "this is the most foolish. You fellows usually have something to start with, and then enlarge upon it to the extent of your fancy. In this, however, there is not even a ground work. There has been no such case before me. I have never been asked by Conkling to sign anything, and have never signed anything for Conkling. It is simply a cold falsehood from beginning to end. I do not care to deny, for it presupposes that Conkling is an unmitigated rascal, and I an unmitigated fool. Conkling has appeared before me as an attorney to argue cases, as he appeared to-day, and in no other capacity."

The Star Route Trial.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Miner continued his testimony in the star route trial to-day. He declares that after January he had never spoken a word to Brady.

The official papers addressed to Brady, purporting to be signed by Miner, were shown to witness. Witness denied writing the signatures, and supposed Rerdell had written them.

Merrick conducted the cross-examination. Witness said the division was used on this statute; the routes shown and on the number of routes. He believed that S. W. Dorsey received no more than his fair share. No account was taken of a probable expedition. "It would have made no difference if we did," said witness, "for S. W. Dorsey got more than anybody." Witness denied having any blank affidavits. Many papers were shown witness which he knew nothing about.

Without concluding the examination court adjourned, expressing a hope that a hug of real night refresh witness' recollection.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Miner's cross-examination was resumed this morning, but his memory was no better than yesterday.

Witness Miner denied that he had ever held a conversation with Jackson (Rerdell's father-in-law), wherein he had told the latter that he would send him to Tophet before he would plead guilty.

Merrick asked if he has made that statement to any one connected with the government.

Witness sneeringly replied that the assistant counsel had approached him and endeavored to get information, and immediately a lively breeze prevailed.

Merrick (fiercely)—He is not assistant counsel; he is one of the conspirators, and will be so treated.

The court cautioned witness not to use improper expressions. After further unimportant testimony, witness was dismissed.

Contract clerk Olcott was next called to testify regarding official papers.

Ingersoll asked permission to show that this reform administration had not cut off service upon the routes said to be worthless.

The court, after reviewing the Jewellian policy, and mentioning its views regarding the policy of the present administration, concluded that Ingersoll's offer to prove the policy of the present administration would not advance the case one step. Adjourned.

An Injustice to the Commissioner of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Recent dispatches convey the impression that the commissioner of the agricultural department had set up his opposition to a law providing against the spread of pleuro-pneumonia and kindred diseases of cattle. The commissioner from the time of the inception of the law was a most earnest and enthusiastic advocate and supporter of it, and was desirous that means might be provided whereby diseases of cattle might be examined into and their spreading prevented through proper analysis and knowledge of the subject. The commissioner has already established a farm at Benning's station, located between this city and Baltimore, which has been provided with all necessary accoutrements and accommodations to make a first class cattle hospital, and their diseases will undergo an examination and inquiry which he is confident will result in great good to the country.

The Charge Denied.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—At a meeting of colored men held in this city Monday for the purpose of indorsing the course of Black, the colored messenger recently dismissed from the navy department, one of the speakers made a statement to the effect that Hamilton Fish, when secretary of state, inaugurated the practice of employing colored messengers of his department to perform personal services at his own residence. This statement is denied by messengers of the state department, who have prepared a card for publication, in which they assert that Fish never employed department employes in his house during department hours, and never at any time without paying liberally from his own pocket for their services.

Chinamen Claiming Redress.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Lou Chang & Co., Chinese merchants of Waynesboro, Georgia, have petitioned the Chinese minister here through lawyers that they get redress from the United States government for the wrongs done them and the grievances committed by a mob in that place. They claim the attention of the 24th article of the treaty between the United States and China of 1844 is applicable to their case, and they are entitled to damages, in addition to being treated with violence and driven out of town all of their property was destroyed.

Large Order for Blanks.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The largest order for printing legal forms ever given to the public printer is that of the commissioner of internal revenue, for blanks and labels required to carry out the effect of the provisions of the laws relative to a rebate on tobacco and cigars. This order was for 30,000,000 labels and 750,000 blanks for the use of manufacturers and dealers. There is a great demand for these blanks, one St. Louis manufacturer alone having sent for 50,000 labels. The demand is being filled as fast as circumstances will permit.

No Discrepancy Discovered.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The committee appointed to examine the condition of the treasury of the United States expect to finish the count of all the cash on hand in about eight days. The count of the diary silver coin was closed to-day. There remains to be counted 5,000,000 standard silver dollars and 32,020,000 legal tender dollars. The committee is also engaged in verifying the accounts of the office, including the accounts of all disbursing officers. No discrepancies thus far have been discovered in either money or accounts.

Fraudulent Land Entries.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The interior department has already sent out 17 special agents, 12 of whom are new appointees, to investigate fraudulent entries of public lands, and will send out others from time to time, as the service may require. Some of these agents have reported a number of fraudulent entries, but it is too soon to expect a full report from all of them. Among the agents sent out are Henderson H. Eddy, of New Mexico; George I. Orner, of Los Angeles; and Wilson T. Smith, of California.

Judge Gresham Takes the Oath of Office

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The oath of office was administered to Judge Gresham to-day, and he was formed formal charge of the postoffice department. The suite of rooms occupied by the postmaster general were then thrown open and the employes notified that he was ready to receive them. The reception which followed occupied about three-quarters of an hour.

Survey Approved.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The commissioner general of the land office has rendered a decision, approving the survey of the Ramon-Vigil grant in New Mexico, made in 1877 by Deputy Surveyors Savage and McElroy. The grant, according to the approved survey, contains 31,302 acres.

The Charges against Hill.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Secretary Folger it is said will soon appoint a commission to examine the charges against Supervising Architect Hill, which were placed in the secretary's hand just before he was prostrated by his recent illness.

Washington People want to Vote.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—At a meeting last evening of the republican central committee of the district of Columbia, resolutions were adopted favoring a movement to secure restoration of suffrage to the citizens of the district.

Damage Suit Against Dorsey.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Judge Bailey to-day entered suit against ex Senator Dorsey for $20,000 damages, alleged to have been sustained by him as a result of the assault made upon him by Dorsey at the house of the latter.

Reception to Judge Gresham.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—The Indiana republican association have arranged for a reception to be given to Judge Gresham, the date of which has not yet been fixed. He will enter on his duties at the postoffice department to-day.

Seen in Washington.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—It is reported that H. W. Howgate, the ex-signal officer who escaped from the custody of a bailiff in this city about a year ago, while waiting trial for embezzlement, was seen on the streets here to-day by officers of the signal service.

Leave of Absence Granted.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—General New, assistant secretary of the treasury, issued an order to-day granting leave of absence on the 16th instant to colored employes of the treasury who desire to participate in the emancipation celebration.

Latest Indian Dispatches.

TOMBSTONE, April 11.—Rangers, 75 strong, and well armed and mounted, left yesterday. Their exact destination is unknown.

Two unknown men were killed by Indians about 30 miles north of this place Sunday.

John Lyons, a well known citizen of this county, on Friday last was at work in the shaft of a mine near Tres Alamos. He had just put in one shot, when, on reaching the top of the shaft, he beheld four mounted Apaches approaching. Lyons' first impression was to bury himself in the shaft and be blown to atoms by the explosion rather than perish at the hands of the Indians. Suddenly, with an instinct of despair, he threw himself behind a pile of rock close at hand, and at the same instant the blast in the shaft exploded with terrific effect, throwing a shower of rock and debris high in the air, followed by a dense volume of smoke. The Indians halted with a yell, and in terror wheeled their horses and galloped off.

Moving Against the Apaches.

TUCSON, April 11.—[Special.]—Four hundred troops have been sent to protect the Arizona at San Carlos. Tombstone rangers have taken the field, being reinforced along the line. The Star Hermosillo special says General Crook arrives this evening from Guaymas. There will be a conference to-morrow between Crook, Carbo, Topete and Governor Torres to arrange for a joint action against the Apaches.

Horrible Outrages by the Indians.

TOMBSTONE, April 11.—[Special.]—Ninety three persons have been killed in this state since the Apache outbreak, of which twenty seven were Americans. It is believed that many killed are not yet reported. At Palos ranch ten were killed last Tuesday. Two women were hung up by the hands and ripped open. From one a child was taken. It was found and spitted at the mother's feet. The bodies of the men were horribly mangled.

POLITICAL.

GEORGIA'S CONVENTION.

ATLANTA, April 11.—The democratic state convention met this morning. At noon the ninth ballot was taken, resulting Boynton 17, Bacon 144. Twelfth ballot, Boynton 147, Bacon 155; necessary to a choice 175.

In the afternoon session five ballots were taken with no material change. The last ballot was: Bacon 155, Boynton 148, McDaniel 31, Cook 15.

KALAMAZOO, Mich., Feb. 2, 1880.

I know Hop Bitters will bear recommendation honestly. All who use them confer upon them the highest encomiums, and give them credit for making cures—all the proprietors claim for them. I have kept them since they were first offered to the public. They took high rank from the first, and maintained it, and are more called for than all others combined. So long as they keep up their high reputation for purity and usefulness, I shall continue to recommend them—something I have never before done with any other patent medicine. J. J. BABCOCK, M. D.

GENERAL NEWS.

The Newhall Disaster Trial.

MILWAUKEE, April 11.—At the morning session of the Scheller trial the prosecution opened their case by calling C. D. Nash, president of the Newhall house company, and questioned him regarding the plan of the house and its safety, who described the house and its exits. He was followed by J. F. Antisell, proprietor, who corroborated his statements, and told of meeting Scheller on Michigan street (the house is Antisell's) ran from the burning building. He said that Scheller's actions for some time previous to the fire had been bad, he having drank a great deal and gambled. It came out that Scheller was confined with Antisell for sending his pistol out of a window from the hotel.

Johnny Antisell, son of the proprietor, said that when he and [illegible] other met Scheller, the latter exclaimed: "My God, Johnny, you know how the fire caught!"

Firemen and policemen occupying the basement were examined as to what there was of an inflammable nature about the building. It was developed that once before there was an incendiary fire in the basement, near Scheller's coal bin, and Scheller's father-in-law, Lorr, who died recently, under circumstances pointing to suicide, had accused Antisell and others of it.

The Revolution in Venezuela.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The Leticia Letitia, which arrived from Maracaybo, Venezuela, to-day, reports that on March 27, at 3 A. M., a revolutionary party headed by Boyer B. Zelaya and Gen. Barlow, with a lot of men well equipped with Winchester 12-shooters, took the town without opposition. On landing the general ensured the people that they had nothing to fear. To all who joined him he gave Remington rifles. Most of the bolder men joined him. He began immediately to fortify the town in such a way as to show the people that he meant to hold it against any attack. The roads leading to the town were barricaded with barrels two or three tiers high and filled with sand. Most of the women and children, and the sick and lame, who were afraid of the burning of the town, were put on board four vessels lying in port. Up to the morning of the 29th no attack was made by the government forces. No one was allowed to leave the town on any pretext.

Diaz Delivers a Pretty Speech.

BOSTON, April 11.—Covers were laid for 260 at the Diaz banquet to-night. The ex-president in a speech said: "Hereafter we will stand together, as good sisters, in our common interest, working together to develop our resources, having each of us our own interests, running in parallel lines, which will never cross each other, no matter how they may be drawn."

The Story Untrue.

NEW YORK, April 11.—The sensational story in yesterday's afternoon papers that some fiend mailed an infernal machine to Miss Nellie Gould, daughter of the great financier, proves, on investigation, to be untrue. The package that exploded in the post office was a burglar alarm of a simple nature, and intended for the daughter of a Newark merchant.

The Lease Denied.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Thomas F. Oakes, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, says there is no truth in the statement that an arrangement or lease by the Northern Pacific of the Central Wisconsin railroad had been made. The only transaction that has lately taken place between them is a traffic contract that exists between all other roads.

Swept away by a Flood.

GO[illegible], April 11.—Floods and ice in the river have carried away Hart's mill and dam. The hands were saved by jumping from the windows to the bank of the stream. Undermined slides occurred, and Hart's house, 30 feet from the stream, was injured. Damages $10,000.

Probable Suicide.

TROY, Ks., April 11.—Judge Nathan Price was found dead in his office this afternoon, apparently as if he had died while asleep, but there are circumstances which lead to the suspicion that he committed suicide. He was the oldest resident of Doniphan county, and a lawyer in high standing.

Twelve Tramps Arrested.

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 11.—Twelve armed tramps captured a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, at Olympia, and ordered the conductor to take them to Lexington. The conductor started the train, having first telegraphed the situation to Mt. Sterling, where officers arrested the tramps.

Discrimination Forbidden.

HARTFORD, April 11.—The house of representatives passed, 150 to 21, a bill forbidding railroads of the state discriminating in freights by charging more for a short haul than for a long one.

The Mormon Conference.

KIRTLAND, Ohio, April 11.—The mormon conference exercises to-day were similar in character to the preceding days, being devoted to the religious services, routine business, discussions and denominational matters.

Butler's Nominations.

BOSTON, April 11.—The governor has made the following nominations to the council: J. K. Tucker, insurance commissioner; Miss Clara Barton, superintendent of the women's prison at Sherborn. The last nomination was confirmed at once.

Harbor Improvements.

BUFFALO, April 11.—A joint meeting of master car builders, master mechanics and every other branch of railroad work to lay discussion relative to the betterment of the construction of tracks and cars, and improvement in the arrangement of accessories to railway systems.

CANADA.

A STEAMER ENCOUNTERS A HURRICANE.

HALIFAX, N. S., April 10.—The steamer Nottingham, New York, April [illegible], for London, put in here after a terrible experience at sea. Tuesday evening a gale began, which raged throughout the night, becoming a cyclone Wednesday morning, when the ship was thrown on her beam ends. The two days following the hurricane prevailed. The mizzen boom was torn away and dashed against the skylight of the engine room, through which the boom and glass fell, seriously injuring three engineers. All the doors of the deck houses were burst open, the house gutted, badly wrecked, and a great part of the ship's provisions carried away. Thirty-three feet of solid bulwarks were swept into the sea, and 30 feet more damaged. Stanchions were torn from their fastenings as if they were scaffolding. Multitudinous seas overwhelmed the ship for 44 hours, the ship being still on her beam ends. The pumps choked, and the men were kept bailing, but were only able to keep the water from gaining. Live stock in the hold was swimming about all this time and having no fodder. Friday morning the men went in a body to Captain Bennett and demanded to be taken to port or leave the ship abandoned. The demand was impossible, water in the engine room preventing fires, and only two boats being left. Friday night the weather moderated. Saturday the storm subsided, and the ship being tight the water was quickly reduced, steam raised, and as soon as the ship got under way she righted. Thirty-four bullocks and six sheep were lost. About 100 tons of cargo was washed overboard.

THE MARQUIS OF LORNE.

OTTAWA, April 11.—[Special.]—The report that the Marquis of Lorne has asked to have his term of service in Canada extended one year is not believed here. Lord Dufferin remained one year beyond his time because solicited by the imperial government, which found some difficulty at the moment in filling the place, but in case of the Marquis of Lorne there is a very different consideration to keep in view. The princess will not live in Canada and is anxious to return to England. It has been believed all along that the marquis has only remained at his post so long because he did not wish to throw up the job for fear that it would look as if he had been urged to do so by the princess.

THE WORK OF A CRANK.

OTTAWA, April 11.—[Special.]—A rumor was current to-day that a box containing explosives had been secreted in the air-duct connecting the eastern with the center parliament block. A private detective made a careful investigation of the subterranean passages, but failed to discover anything. The recent explosion in the eastern block of the government house is thought to be the act of a crank.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION TO BRITISH COLUMBIA.

OTTAWA, April 11.—A delegation waited upon the government to-day regarding the restrictions of Chinese immigration in British Columbia. Sir John McDonald replied that no measures would be taken to restrict such immigration until the completion of the Canadian Pacific railway.

THE EXTRADITION OF PHIPPS.

OTTAWA, Ont., April 11.—[Special.]—The secretary of state has forwarded to the proper authorities a warrant for the extradition of Major Phipps, the Philadelphia almshouse fraud. He will at once be taken to Philadelphia for trial.

WANTS TO TURN INFORMER.

OTTAWA, April 11.—[Special.]—A movement is now under consideration for the entertainment of a proposition made by a Montreal Irishman to throw further light upon the murder of Hon. Thomas Darcey McGee, provided the witness be protected from subsequent legal action.

FLOOD IN ONTARIO.

BRANTFORD, April 11.—The Grand river has risen eight feet in the last 48 hours. The north and the south sides of the city are flooded, and residents are moving out or else keeping to the second story.

STATION AGENT CHARGED WITH THEFT.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., April 11.—Theophilus Gallant, station agent at Dorchester, on the Intercolonial railroad, is accused of a [illegible] amounting to $21,000.

THE SOUTH'S VICTORY.

New England Manufacturers here had their Day, and the Wheel Turns.

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 10.—[Special.]—An advertisement announcing the triumph of southern competition with northern dry goods men states that the latter have been driven to the wall, and that the remedy sought in lower freights would be suicidal to railroads. The southern announcement is made: "We get special low rates of freight to all important points," Copious extracts are given from various journals to show that New England manufactories have had their day. The causes of New York manufacturers to the state railway commissioners in the fight will not avail any relief which will probably be sought from congress, the only body large enough to cope with trunk lines.

COMMERCIAL JOURNALS EXERCISED.

NEW YORK, April 10.—[Special.]—Commercial journals here and in New England are considerably exercised over Commissioner Fink's refusal to grant New York and eastern goods manufacturers lower specification of west bound freights, such as will do away with the existing discriminations in favor of southern mills. Circulars received by last night's mail from southern towns show that mill owners are quick to take advantage of the situation.

WHIPPED BY THE ANTI-MONOPOLY PARTY.

PHILADELPHIA, April 10.—[Special.]—It is probable that the action of the commissioners in Pittsburg is likely to swell the ranks of the anti-monopoly party by a revolution from the commercial classes, which have heretofore been always looking for the protection of the community, to strengthen the trade sentiment in New England.

FIRES.

The Westminster Blaze.

WESTMINSTER, Md., April 11.—The fire yesterday was extinguished by rain, which fell steadily for several hours. Nearly all occupants of the burnt building saved the bulk of their property. Four colored men have been arrested for setting fire to a stable while playing cards, owing to fears of lynching the jail is strongly guarded.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN MAINE.

BOOTH-BAY, Maine, April 11. The extensive buildings of the Knickerbocker company, and its ice houses and engine houses, hay and ice houses, were totally destroyed by fire and 60,000 tons of ice ruined to-day. Wharves were also destroyed. Boats loading at the wharves were hauled into the river. Loss, $150,000; insurance, $31,000.

MACHINE SHOPS DESTROYED.

KENOSHA, Minn. April 11.—The round house and machine shops of the Northwestern railway burned here at 2 this morning. Eleven locomotives were badly damaged. Loss, $35,000. No insurance.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEDNESDAY, April 11.

Freights at San Francisco to-day show a slight weakness. With no exporters are holding off hoping for an easier market.

Wheat remains dull. Anything like an accurate quotation is impossible. Advices from abroad show a rather better turn of affairs, which are felt in the Atlantic markets. San Francisco shows no change.

Oats again are in larger receipt and present requirements are supplied. Several lots are on the market at 90c, cents but find no purchasers. Probably 87½@90 cents would be a fair quotation for choice feeding. A settling of values seems to be looked for as dealers buy closely.

Chickens sold to-day at $6. Market is only fairly supplied.

Eggs [illegible] 27 cents.

Ten canning firms have issued a call for a meeting of canners to be soon held looking to the withdrawal of about one-half the boats now in from for fishing. It is considered that more boats have been equipped than can be run and operated without interference. The proposal, we believe, will meet with little opposition. A large fleet of boats do not catch the proportion of fish that a more moderate number would. That too many boats are on hand is very evident. Each boat represents several hundred dollars and if not in use that amount of capital is idle. Place a sufficient number of boats in commission so that the grounds will not be overcrowded and the catch will be fully as large. The proportion of boats used should be in keeping with the capacity of the cannery. Boats known as "outside" boats cannot be kept off the river but it is proposed to turn over the catch of the ratchet those boats to a receiver who shall distribute the fish pro rata among the canneries. If the plan is perfected an agreement will be immediately entered into.

Receipts past 24 hours include 3 cks wheat, 1300 bxs flour, 903 ctls oats, 20,350 lbs bran, 5956 lbs mill-feed, 307 sks potatoes, 43 bls hay, 158 lbs hides, 18 bxs butter, 4230 doz eggs, 391 bxs fruit. All from the valley.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

THROUGH LINE FROM PORTLAND TO NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 11.—President Colby of the Wisconsin Central is now in New York, closing negotiations for the sale of the Wisconsin Central to the Villard syndicate. It being the preliminary step to the establishment of a continuous line from New York to Portland, Or. With the construction of the Northern Pacific link, connecting Superior City and Ashland, Wisconsin, the Central gains entrance to Milwaukee. With another link to Chicago it will complete a through line to New York via the Grand Trunk and West Shore road. However, the entire line will not be under a single management, Villard controlling it, at least for the present, with a traffic agreement east of Chicago. It is thought the whole line will be in operation by August 1.

HOP BITTERS ARE THE PUREST AND BEST BITTERS EVER MADE.

They are compounded from Hops, Malt, Buchu, Mandrake and Dandelion—the oldest, best, and most valuable medicines in the world, and contain all the best and most curative properties of all other remedies, being the greatest Blood Purifier, Liver Regulator, and Life and Health Restoring Agent on earth. No disease or ill health can possibly long exist where these bitters are used, so varied and perfect are their operations.

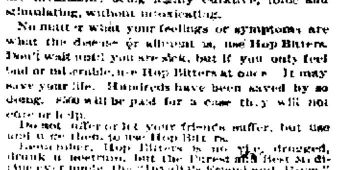

They give new life and vigor to the aged and infirm. To all whose employments cause irregularities of the bowels or urinary organs, or who require an appetizer, tonic and mild stimulant, Hop Bitters are invaluable, being highly curative, tonic and stimulating, without intoxicating.

No matter what your feelings or symptoms are what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use Hop Bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing. $500 will be paid for a case they will not cure or help.

Do not suffer or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters.

Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged, drunken nostrum, but the Purest and Best Medicine ever made, the "Invalid's Friend and Hope," and no person or family should be without them. Try the Bitters to-day.
